Join or Team for PRO Expedition and Tradeshow 2024

PRO is thrilled to announce the launch of its newest and most exciting initiative yet: the 2024 PRO Expedition and Tradeshow, also known as PRO EX!

About PRO EX:

PRO EX is not just a conference; it's expedition into uncharted territories of knowledge, creativity, and discovery. We're assembling a diverse committee of visionary individuals to help shape this extraordinary event for parks and recreation professional. If you're passionate about pushing boundaries, fostering innovation, and creating a platform for cutting-edge ideas, PRO EX Committee is the perfect opportunity for you.

Why Join the Committee:

As a committee member, you'll play a pivotal role in curating an experience that goes beyond traditional conferences. You'll have the chance to:

Shape the Narrative: Influence the themes, topics, and direction of the conference. Your insights will drive the content that captivates attendees and inspires change.

Network with Creative thinkers: Connect with a dynamic community of experts, thought leaders, and innovators across various industries. Your participation will forge lasting relationships that extend beyond the conference.

Foster Innovation: Collaborate with like-minded individuals to develop unconventional ideas, interactive.

Roles Available:

We're seeking enthusiastic individuals to join two key committees: the Event Planning Committee and the Content Committee.

Event Planning Committee:

If you have a knack for logistics, creativity, and orchestrating seamless experiences, the Event Planning Committee is where you belong. Your responsibilities may include all things organization, coordinating speakers, tradeshow and sponsorship, designing engagement activities, and ensuring every detail contributes to an unforgettable expedition.

Content Committee:

If you're passionate about content curation, idea generation, and thought leadership, the Content Committee is your arena. You'll collaborate to identify emerging trends, source remarkable speakers, brainstorm interactive formats, and craft a narrative that leaves delegates inspired and empowered.

Qualifications:

We're looking for candidates who embody innovation, diversity, and a willingness to challenge conventions. Whether you're an experienced professional, a young trailblazer, or somewhere in between, your perspective matters to us.

How to Apply:

To embark on this process with PRO EX fill out the online application here.

Join us in redefining what's possible. The expedition starts now.
